

Are you looking to volunteer?

Do you want to learn how the County works?

Would you like to work with others to evaluate engagement programs and policies?

Apply to Serve on Multnomah County's Community Involvement Committee
Application Deadline: Friday, March 14th

We are currently recruiting new members for the Multnomah County Community Involvement Committee (CIC) - an advisory body on community engagement policies, programs, and practices countywide.

Members participate in a 2-hour General Meeting every other month and meet with a sub-committee of your choice once a month.

Get involved, learn about County engagement, share your perspective, and work with others to make a difference.

A $35 stipend per meeting is available to support your participation.
