Office of Community & Civic Life's Graffiti Program Offering Graffiti Removal to Portland Businesses

This past weekend, Portlanders gathered through vigils, marches, and protests to honor the life of George Floyd. Most of the gatherings were peaceful while some resulted in damage to buildings and businesses. In response, The Office of Community & Civic Life (Civic Life), Neighborhood Emergency Teams, Portland Bureau of Transportation, and Regional Arts and Culture Council worked closely to coordinate and clean up graffiti and tagging, but left graffiti that was a memorial to George Floyd intact.

Civic Life's Graffiti Program continues to offer its graffiti removal services to business impacted and prioritize free removal services for Black-owned and minority-owned businesses impacted by graffiti related to these events. To apply for our services, please fill out the attached form.

Any questions about free graffiti removal, graffiti removal best practices, and volunteer opportunities can be directed to Graffiti Program Coordinator Juliette Muracchioli, juliette.muracchioli@portlandoregon.gov
